Orange City Christian School Foundational Information

Mission Statement

Orange City Christian School is a biblically-based community that partners with parents, educating hearts and minds for service in Christ's kingdom.

Purpose of Orange City Christian School

The Orange City Christian School is owned and operated by a society of believers for the purpose of providing elementary education that is directed by Scripture, as interpreted by the Reformed Confessions. This society is composed of parents who have the primary responsibility for providing their children with a God-centered education and all other members of the Christian community, members who are also called to provide Christian nurturing and instruction for covenant children. In sending their children to Orange City Christian School, parents entrust the education of their children to the board that operates the school through its administrators and teachers, all of whom are qualified to carry out their tasks in harmony with the purpose of the institution. Teachers and parents work together to further the Christian education of their children.

As a biblical, Reformed, Christian school, Orange City Christian School recognizes the centrality of the covenant and the kingdom. Children of believers are to be seen and loved by the teachers as members of God's covenant and as citizens of His kingdom. They are God's children in Christ and share in the calling of the believing community. As such, they are educated for discipleship that is obedient covenantal service, putting all areas of life under the Lordship of Jesus Christ. In this covenant-kingdom activity, they are, together with all believers, co-workers and partners with Jesus Christ.

All members of the Christian school community should encourage and require each other to demonstrate the character of faithful covenant children who delight in and honor God's laws. All interrelationships will be lovingly evaluated within the context of each person's role in the covenant and the kingdom.

We exist to praise and glorify God's name in all that we learn and do. OCCS is dedicated to helping each student grow and develop spiritually, academically, and socially.

IX. Personal Agreement

I hereby declare that the information contained in this application is true, complete, and correct. I understand that a false statement may disqualify me from employment or result in my immediate dismissal for cause.

I authorize Orange City Christian School and its representatives, employees, and/or agents to make any investigation of my personal, education, and employment history.

I understand and support the mission and philosophy held at Orange City Christian School. I also understand that if I were to become an employee of the school, I would be expected to be committed to behavior that is in keeping with biblical principles. My work and interactions with faculty, staff, and students should promote Christian convictions and maturity, give glory to God, and further His Kingdom.

I am a Christian and believe the Scripture of the Old and New Testaments to be the inspired Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice. The Bible reveals the way of salvation in Jesus Christ (my Savior and Redeemer and Lord of all creation), requires a life of obedience to the Lord, and provides the key to understanding, to finding, and to interpreting purpose in life. This divine Word of God has been most clearly and consistently interpreted in the Reformed creeds and confessions. I am familiar with and affirm three creeds of Reformed Christian unity, namely the Apostle's Creed, the Nicene Creed, and the Athanasian Creed. I am familiar with and affirm three confessions of Reformed Christian unity, namely the Belgic Confession, the Heidelberg Catechism, and the Canons of Dort as historic expressions of the Christian faith, whose doctrines fully agree with the Word of God.

One of the requirements for Orange City Christian School instructional faculty and administration is to be/become members in good standing of a church based on the Word of God as interpreted in the Reformed Standards of a confessional church whose teachings are compatible with the constitution of the Christian School Society. All employees are required, as a condition of employment, to enroll their eligible children in a Christian school (K-8). I understand and agree to follow these requirements.

Such a requirement is not to be interpreted as a judgmental statement in regard to other Christian traditions. It is rather a reflection of the founding principles of Orange City Christian School and the institution's efforts to develop an educational program based on those convictions. An applicant does not need to be a member of a confessionally-Reformed congregation at the time of their application. However, we want to be up front that if an applicant is offered a position, this is a requirement of employment. Once a new employee moves to this area and begins their job, they would be expected to find a church home and affiliate with one of the many churches in the area that fits this requirement.

Applicants must also seek to obey Scripture's instructions that all are called to put off things like sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires, and greed as well as things such as anger, rage, malice, slander, and filthy language, and to put on an attitude of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience, and, of course, love (Colossians 3). More specifically, prospective members of the Orange City Christian School community are expected to agree with its anti-harassment policy and position that considers pre-marital, extra-marital, and same-gender sexual relations and romantic relationships to be unacceptable behavior.
